"Exploring
Traditional and Modern
Sustainable
Solutions for Climate Justice"

Presented by

SOL CENTER
CULTIVATING CLIMATE JUSTICE AND PEACE

Do you want to be part of a transformational experience that fuels your commitment to creating equitable, sustainable solutions for a more just and peaceful world?

Would you like to deepen your understanding of sustainability concepts while having fun and meeting new friends from around the world?

Then join Hawai'i and international youth for Huaka'i Hawai'i - a five week online exploration of climate change impacts and solutions for food and energy security on the most isolated land mass in the world.

Through the unique history, environment, and cultural wisdom of Hawai'i we will explore traditional and modern approaches to systems thinking and strategic planning for innovative, values-based solutions for a more equitable and peaceful world..

Weekly one hour on-line presentations will be augmented by one hour on-line facilitated small group discussions, selected off-line reading, and creative project sharing.

Join us for 5 weeks of knowledge building, cross-cultural collaboration and fun creating solutions with international peers on the world's greatest challenge.

E komo mai - We welcome you into this experience!
